

Home of the Week

Panoramic views of Long Island Sound and Greenwich Cove are the setting for this Shore Colonial home located in a private association within a short walk of Tod's Point. Built by York and Company, this home features four bedrooms, 4.1 baths, high ceilings, a covered front porch with mahogany decking and two balconies, gourmet kitchen with custom cabinetry, family room with fireplace, formal entertaining rooms, a master suite, three additional ensuite bedrooms, one of which incorporates a two-story tower reminiscent of a New England lighthouse, and landscaped yard with flagstone terrace.
